

such subjects, felt as though these had been stolen out of his pocket. He said nothing, however, until getting to the door of the entrance, where the effigy of a huge arm swung as huge a hammer, he asked what that meant. "The badge of our institution, sir—you know this is the Mechanics' Bank," was the explanation of the teller. "You had better take it down and substitute a carrier's knife," was Randolph's reply.

A FAMILY ARMY.—A friend on whom we can rely, lately informed us that an ancestor of his wife's on the Island of Mars tinique, was the father of thirty sons by one wife, and that during the attack on the Island by the English, he was the Colonel of a regiment of volunteer militia, in the front ranks of which the whole thirty were stationed. —Boston Traveller.

From the Nauvoo Eagle.

"THE DESERTED VILLAGE."—The once flourishing Mormon hamlet of Macedonia, in this county, will in a few weeks, become almost deserted and desolate.—The place contained about eighty families, chiefly Mormons, who raised it to the rank of a thriving inland town. It owes its existence to that trait in the Mormon character, which enables them to concentrate their energies, and form communities of their own. In a locality of this kind, they mingle but little with the world, and gain an humble subsistence by cultivating small tracts of land. Such were the people of Macedonia.

Now, they are daily deserting their old homes; and in the course of two months, the town will contain scarcely half a dozen inhabited houses. Even these will be vacated as soon as their occupants can raise the means of removing.

It is not unlikely that others will come in to replace many of those who leave; but it will not be for some months to come; and even then, the town will be but a shadow of what it was.

The country will hereafter be farmed upon a large scale, and wealth will be contracted in the hands of a few. This, of itself, will diminish its numerical strength. This, of all others, is the time to purchase property in that quarter—as the owners, anxious only to leave, will sell for a "mere song." Macedonia is but a duplicate of several other villages that dot the surface of the beautiful country lying within twenty miles of Nauvoo, all of which will be abandoned by their present inhabitants.

Hancock county, until recently, contained 22,537 souls, and was the Empire county of the State. It has already been reduced at least 2000, and will soon lose several thousand more.

The hope and prospect is, that new settlers will continue to move in, and occupy the comfortable homes left vacant by the Mormons. Let persons therefore who are in search of a new "location," and who wish to better their condition in life, call and see the country. They will be amply compensated for the visit.

CAPTAIN THORNTON STILL ALIVE!—The first news that Captain Thornton and Hardee were killed in the Skirmish and surprise which commenced the war, was not correct. The Picayune of the 12th gives the gratifying intelligence that only 9 men and one officer, Lieut. Mason, was killed, the rest being alive and well, and prisoners of war, with good treatment.

The party were surrounded in an inclosure of a settlement into which they rode to make inquiry. After getting in at the only entrance they found about 2,500 Mexicans posted in ambush all around the fence in which was a hedge of chaparral. The Mexicans fired on them and killed 9 of their number. The Americans then endeavored to charge through the enemy and return but found them too strong. The only outlet to the inclosure save the one by which they entered (now completely choked with Mexicans) was an opening to the Rio Grande. This they attempted with a view to swimming it; but found the banks so boggy that they were compelled to desist. The little party then drew themselves beyond musket shot in the centre of the inclosure, and were preparing for a final desperate charge to escape, when a Mexican officer rode up and the terms of a surrender were agreed upon.

NAPOLEON'S HEART.—After the death of Napoleon, his heart was taken out by his English physician, to be embalmed. This physician laid the heart in a large silver dish, and poured cold water over it. He then placed a burning wax taper on each side of the dish, which was in the middle of a large glass his singular employment, he had no sound sleep. While lying in a half dreaming state, he was completely aroused by a flashing in the silver dish. A shudder passed over him—he knew not what to think of the singular occurrence, and remained perfectly still; but in a moment more heard a fall, and starting up, discovered the cause of his alarm, or surprise. A monstrous rat had drawn the heart from the dish to the floor, and was in the very act of dragging it to his hole. In another moment, that heart, for which half the globe was too narrow, would have become the supper of a common rat.

CAPTIVITY OF NAPOLEON.—Most readers are aware, we presume, that Count Moutoulon is now publishing, at Paris, his journal of conversation with Napoleon at St. Helena, with a minute account of events and incidents there—the publication having been interdicted by the Emperor until 25 years should have elapsed after his death. He died in 1821, and now the book appears. A translation is issued in numbers by E. Perrett, of Philadelphia, the first number of which was published on the 25th ult. That it will be read by thousands, and with keen interest, we may be sure, says the N. Y. Commercial—Delta.

HURRAH FOR THE WEST.—The Lexington (Mo.) Telegraph announces the marriage of Mr. Elden Myers, a youth of 19, to Mrs. Mary Mash, the mother of 15 children! And also Judge, John Briscoe, formerly of Cooper county and now a resident of Van Buren, aged 70, to Miss Drake, aged 16!

PREHAPS just about the finest lot of DRUGS ever brought into N. Mississippi or any other country, has just been opened at the S. East corner of the Court House Square in the town of Panola, where friends, enemies and all who wish for any thing in the line of Drugs and Medicines;

Paints and Oils;
Paint Brushes;
Window Glass, and Dye Stuffs,
can be accommodated just a leettie better and cheaper than they could be at Memphis or New Orleans.

The subscriber is desirous of making an experiment in the sale of Drugs at this point, and all that is necessary to render it successful, is that all those who desire a good and cheap article of any description usually kept by those in his line, should drift this way and float in.

He does not believe that a customer who will try him once, will ever be induced to go any where else for any of the necessities or superfluities of life, with which his establishment is so well stocked; for he does suppose and believes most conscientiously, clearly & indubitably that he can serve a customer cheaper, better and more to the satisfaction of all parties than such a thing has been done within the recollection of the oldest inhabitant.

The period of the year is approaching when medicines are usually in demand for families and plantations, and the subscriber has taken extraordinary pains to purchase such an assortment as will enable him to respond in the affirmative to every reasonable interrogatory of a customer, and he cannot see any earthly reason why the people of Panola and its vicinity should so far forget themselves as to go fifty or five hundred miles for an article which they might get here, and save travel and trouble, and of more importance still, yet a cheaper and better article by calling at the DRUG STORE of S. N. PEARSON.

James E. Evans, vs. John Evans, et al.

IN this case it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Lorenzo D. Evans, John Estis and Penelope Estis are non residents of the State of Mississippi.—It is therefore ordered by the court that unless they appear at the July Term of this court and answer the allegations in the petition in the above case, the same shall be taken as confessed against them. It is further ordered by the court that notice be given in the Panola Lynx, a newspaper published in the town of Panola for sixty days.

Witness the Hon. John T. M. Barbridge Judge of said court at the court house of said county the 20th day of April A. D. 1846, and the seal of said adified. J. C. ARMSTRONG, CLK.

ABSTRACT OF THE BILL.

The petition charges that John Evans died in Nov. 1842, leaving four children besides petitioner; that dec'd. in 18 an instrument purporting to be his last will and testament was admitted to probate on the evidence of one witness, that dec'd. left a large estate consisting of real and personal property, amounting to between seven & eight thousand dollars, that petitioner had never received but one negro girl from dec'd. That said instrument is fraudulent and not the will of the dec'd. and that dec'd. was incapable at the time of making a will, that he was not of sound and disposing mind at the time, nor for a long time previous, that defendant sought the advantage which infirmity of age and insanity had given them, obtained his signature to an instrument, the contents of which he was ignorant, and that dec'd. by stratagem attempt to set up the same as his will and thereby attempt to secure to themselves the property to the exclusive of petitioner, that petitioner had delayed proceeding thus long on account of promises by defendant that they would divide with petitioner. Petitioner prays that defendant be compelled to appear at Term of said court and answer fully the allegations in said petition and that said instrument and probate be set aside and that the property descend as at law as in cases of intestates, and a general prayer for relief.
